

We cannot allow one or a few companies to control the media. Those pushing economies of scale are not addressing quality, diversity, balance and competition. Those issues are part of the FCC's mission. Our freedoms and civil rights in a democracy are completely dependent on open and honest communication.